

A Multitude of Encounters with Asia – Gender Perspectives

Tuesday 14 October Venue: Radisson Hotel Saga, Katla II
Plenary Session, Travelling Theory and Cultural Translation
9:00-9:15	Welcome by Professor Anna Karlsdóttir & Professor Min Dongchao
9:15-10:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote speech by Kathy Davis, Senior Research Fellow, Sociology, VU University, Amsterdam Feminism as Traveling Theory and Transnational Practice: the Case of "Our Bodies, Ourselves" Chair: Min Dongchao
10:15-10:30	Break
10:30-11:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Keynote speech by Mary E. John, Senior Fellow, Centre for Women's Development Studies, New Delhi Rethinking 'Local' and 'Global' Feminisms: Perspectives from India Chair: Min Dongchao
11:30-12:30	Travelling Theory and Cultural Translation Paper session 1 Chair: Wang Qi <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Xu Feng: The Political Economy of Feminist Ideas in Transit: Production, Dissemination and Reception Nicola Spakowski: Travelling Theories in Dynamic Contexts: Theory-Building in Contemporary Chinese Feminism
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Travelling Theory and Cultural Translation Paper session 2 Chair: Nicola Spakowski <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Guo Xiajuan: Justice into policy: the journey towards gender justice in China Bu Wei: Rethinking Feminist Theories Input and Local Knowledge Production: Media Criticism, Cultural Studies, and Feminist Communication Activism in China Zhang Yuzhen: Publication and Transmission Politics on Feminism Theories' Traveling in China –Take Simone de Beauvoir's The Second Sex as an example
15.00-15:30	Coffee Break
15:30-16:30	Travelling Theory and Cultural Translation Paper session Chair: Mary E John <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Min Dongchao: Does Translation Matter? Wang Qi: Collective Male Feminism, Feminism and Feminist Politics in Transitional China.